Famous friends make a festive visit to the children’s wards

University Hospital Crosshouse children’s wards were treated to a party with some famous friends. Santa Claus and Elsa from Frozen came along to give out gifts and meet the kids who were dressed up in their party outfits. Some even became Santa’s helpers and dressed as elves for the day. There were smiles all around, and plenty of Christmas Spirit.

Jean Davies, Clinical Nurse Manager, Paediatrics commented: “It is very important to keep up the spirits of the children in our wards at this time of year.

“The Christmas party is a wonderful way to allow the kids to get dressed up and receive presents from Santa. We all really enjoyed meeting Elsa this year too.

“We would like to say thanks and Merry Christmas to all of our staff, patients, and families involved in what was a lovely day for the children.”
