Meet Ayrshire’s newest residents

Staff and parents at Ayrshire Maternity Unit at University Hospital Crosshouse have welcomed their first babies of 2015.

Our first arrival checked in at 10.57am, a 6lb 14oz son, Shane, for Donna Wallace and Eddie Bruce. Donna, a staff nurse in University Hospital Crosshouse, and Eddie, a TV and film extra, are from Onthank in Kilmarnock. Shane is a brother for Mia (11), Troy (6), and two-year-old twins, Elina and Annalise.

Next to arrive was a baby boy for Heather and Dean Gillespie. Jax arrived at 11.03am and weighed in at 11lb 6oz. Heather, an auxiliary nurse in the Early Pregnancy Unit in Ayrshire Maternity Unit, and Dean, a project manager for Scotts Seats in Fenwick, are from Hurlford. Jax is a brother to Danni (15), Elli (11) and eight-year-old Kati.

ends

Date of release: Thursday 1 January 2015

Photographs:
010115babywallace.jpg Shane with mum, Donna, and dad, Eddie.
010115babygillespie.jpg Jax with mum, dad and sisters, Danni (15), Elli (11) and eight-year-old Kati.

For further media enquiries about this topic, please contact: