External Consultancy	Scottish Government guidance on the “use of consultancy procedures” defines “consultancy” as a wide range of professional services such as management consultancy, IT consultancy, financial consultancy, construction or infrastructure related consultancy, research and evaluation and policy development (including feasibility studies). The definition set out in this guidance has been adopted. The definition applies to services being procured, not the name of the supplier or the supplier’s own description of the service.	Outsourcing or buying in technical or specialist services such as legal advice and representation or recruitment services.	1st April 2022 to 31st March 2023 See attached spreadsheet for External Consultancy
Payments with a value in excess of £25,000	Statement specifying the amount, date, payee and subject-matter of any payment made during the financial year which has a value in excess of £25,000 (inclusive of VAT). ‘Payments’ include all individual payment transactions, including payments for goods and services, grants or grant-in-aid to third parties and transactions with government departments or other public bodies. The reporting requirement relates to cash payments, not accruals or invoices; and includes relevant payments made by a listed body on behalf of third parties.	Information relating to remuneration or other payments made to an individual in respect of their service as a member or employee of a public body.	1 st April 2022 to 31 st March 2023 See separate document.
