4. Director's Report

Submitted report by Caroline Cameron, Director (NAHSCP) on the developments within the North Ayrshire Health and Social Care Partnership.

The report provided an update on the following areas: -

- Scotland's Self Harm Strategy and Action Plan (2023-2027) published on 28 November 2023;
- Letter to the Health, Social Care and Sport Committee from Maree Todd, MSP Minister for Social Care, Mental Wellbeing and Sport in response to Stage 1 Scrutiny of the Bill., with a copy of the letter available on the Scottish Parliament website: National Care Service \(parliament.scot\);
- Maree Todd, MSP Minister for Social Care, Mental Wellbeing, and Sport also written to the Convenor of the Health and Sport committee to provide an update on the recommendations from the Coming Home report which was published in February 2022;
- MAPPA Annual Report 2022-23 for the South West Scotland area has now been published on the MAPPA Annual Report \(nahscp.org\);
- Audit Scotland currently carrying out an audit of drug and alcohol services in Scotland with the scope published on the Audit Scotland website: Drug and Alcohol services - audit scope | Audit Scotland \(audit-scotland.gov.uk\). The overall aim of the performance audit was to consider how effective Scotland's drug and alcohol services are in delivering on the Scottish Government's strategies;

- A group of six clients of North Ayrshire's Unpaid Work team received recognition certificates from the Koestler Awards for their original artworks, with one participant also receiving a Highly Commended certificate for this unique wooden birdhouse;
- North Ayrshire Adult Protection, Children Protection and Alcohol and Drug Partnership teams have a new joint Facebook page, to share information on the work being carried out locally to protect people and what to do if someone is at risk from harm;
- Carers Rights Day event held at West Kilbride Village Hall to launch the expanded North Ayrshire Carers Gateway service and was attended by carers, staff of the Carers Gateway and NAHSCP, representatives from Third Sector organisations, North Ayrshire Provost Anthea Dickson and North Ayrshire Carers Champion Councillor Nairn McDonald. The event offered a chance to network, hear more about the service and find out more about additional sources of support locally;
- the innovative new group for North Ayrshire's Recovery Development Workers was established and met for the first time on 8 November;
- the unannounced inspection between 24 October and 3 November 2023 of the North Ayrshire Irvine, Garnock Valley Care at Home and Community Alarm Service, the service received the following grades 4 and 5 rated Good and Very Good; and
- The Care Inspectorate also conducted an unannounced inspection of the Dementia Support Service on 22 November 2023. This was a pilot inspection to test a new way of providing assurance that better performing, lower risk services are continuing to provide good quality care and support. No grades were awarded following this inspection however, inspectors concluded that the previous evaluation of good for the service was maintained.

Members asked questions and were provided with further information in relation to: -

- the national care service bill proposals and the impact on the scheme of integration review; and
- the establishment of a National Care Service Board and the impact on the IJB.

Noted.

5. 2023 – 2024 Month 7 Financial Performance

Submitted report by Paul Doak, Head of Service (HSCP Finance and Transformation), on the IJB's financial performance as at month 7 (November).
